ASTORIA CONCERNS HELP

REPLY TO NUMEROUS ENQUIRIES AS TO LAND AND CHANCES FOR INVESTMENT IN ASTORIA AND CLATSOP COUNTY.

Half a dozen of the leading real estate and investment firms in Astoria are answering the letters received from numerous eastern people by the Chamber of Commerce. The latter organization is now devoting itself to running adds in the leading eastern dailies as to the natural advantages of this section for the location of a large variety of industries and manufacturing plants.

Manager Whyte and his assistant, Mr. Wallace, have again settled down to the work of boosting Astoria since the loss of Regatta business. With the help of two stenographers, hundreds of letters are being answered daily, and real estate and investment concerns in the city are helping out at such as possible.

A number of investors have enquired about the possibilities here for a glass factory, the location of a wholesale grocery house, brickyards, etc. The location of a flour mill, which has been investigated by outside capital, has not gone beyond the correspondence stage as yet, but there are excellent possibilities for the establishment of such a plant in the near future.

Promoters have been advertised for to interest capital in the construction of an electric railway to Seaside, and a number of satisfactory answers have been received. The attention of people in the east is being drawn to Clatsop county and Astoria and the result cannot help but be beneficial.

The work inaugurated by the Chamber of Commerce has already brought quite a number of visitors to the city to investigate conditions for investments, and hardly a day passes that new arrivals are not recorded. Favorable comment is heard from the visitors almost without exception, and many of them will locate here at no late date.

Immediate results cannot be expected from the advertising campaign inaugurated by the Chamber of Commerce, and it is only by constant effort and steady, systematic boosting that a great growth can be obtained. This is the policy of the organization which means to keep Astoria before the prospective investors and settlers from the east until the desired results have been attained.

That a great good is bound to come from the efforts put forth, there is no reason to doubt, and before the end of the year much will have been done toward placing the city before the public and in the position in which she could stand, because of her natural location for a big city, and because of her many advantages.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPERS LEAVE

AFTER SPENDING TWO ENJOYABLE WEEKS AT SEASIDE THEY ARE CARRIED TO PORTLAND IN TWO SPECIAL COACHES.

Two coaches attached to the regular morning train to Portland from Seaside carrying about 140 members of the Y. W. C. A. of the Northwest. The party broke up on the 10th of the month after about two weeks' outing at Seaside, where they all enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

A large number of the resorters stopped at the Seaside House, while many of them enjoyed outdoor life by camping in roomy tents on the grounds near the hotel. Surf bathing, fishing, clam digging, berry-picking, long rambles along the shore and a number of short excursions helped to make their visit enjoyable.

Most of the young ladies were from colleges and seminaries of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Almost every study open to female students was represented by those young folks at the beach, who will become famous, many of them, as lawyers, doctors, musicians and writers. During the visit to the beach they held services and conducted themselves in a model manner.

This annual outing of the Y. W. C. A. is a great boon to a large number of young women, who would not otherwise spend any time at the seaside. Many of them are without relatives, and the chaperons provided by the association enable them to spend their outing in good company.

Portland will be the distributing point of the party which passed through here yesterday morning. After a few hours in that city they will go to Seattle, Tacoma, Baker City, Eugene, and various other cities to their school life, or to their homes.

Absconding Debtor—
John Parla was arrested yesterday morning at the depot. He was charged by Carlson Bros. with being an absconding debtor and was about to leave for Portland.

Escaped Patient—
George Martin, who was committed to the Asylum from this county and reported as having escaped from the Asylum, is said to be at his home in Portland fully recovered.

Labor Council Meets—
The regular meeting of the Astoria Central Labor Council was held last night. After transacting the routine business a committee was appointed to entertain 200 or more delegates from the Oregon State Federation of Labor who will be in Astoria next January.

Well Known in Astoria—
Captain Bolles, well known in Astoria as former captain of the Columbia, passed here on the Roanoke for Portland. For many years Captain Bolles has been inspector of hulls and boilers in San Francisco and is well and favorably known both in Oregon and California.

Leaves Single Comes Back Double—
Earle A. Clark, of the Brownsville Woolen Mills Co., of this city, leaves this morning for Missouri. While there he will be united in marriage with one of the fair daughters of that state. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be in Astoria in about three weeks and make their home here.

Rushing Business—
A jolly party were seen on one of the city street cars on Monday night en route to Uppertown. The conductor afterward stated that he had collected 77 fares. Should this amount of business keep up more cars will have to be sent for although the company now has three new ones.

A Queer Document—
A deed was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday for the sale of two lots in Warrenton that was somewhat voluminous for the amount involved in the transaction. Sarah Jane Hodgkins of Manchester, New Hampshire, and Jas. W. Montgomery of Chepachet, Rhode Island, sold to H. C. Elliott and L. T. Winters of Portland lots 13 and 14, block 7, in Warrenton. Accompanying the deed were notarial acknowledgments from Providence, Rhode Island, Hillsborough, N. H., and Bristol, Mass. H. C. Thompson and wife, of Portland, also give quit claim deed to the same parties for the property. The title to this property should not be amenable to question.

Fire Matters—
The Amoskeog Steam Fire Engine, formerly the engine handled by old Astoria No. 1 in the volunteer days has been placed in the new engine house and will be overhauled and kept in commission. The hook and ladder truck is also stationed in the same building. The new house presents the appearance of a metropolitan fire headquarters.

Fall Fishing Commenced—
Fall fishing commenced yesterday. Few Astoria fishermen went out, many being disgusted with the prices offered. Little or no packing will be done at the local canneries though the cold storage will be in operation. On the Oregon coast streams packing will be done and licenses for same have been issued by the fish warden as follows: Gillnetters, 180; set nets, 352; dealers, 103; seines, 12; cold storage plants, 6; and canneries, 3. It is too early to predict what the outlook will be.

Sue For Towing—
The Callender Navigation Company has sued the Westport Lumber Company to recover $1259.03 and interest at 6 per cent from August 1, 1906. The plaintiff claims to have towed log rafts for which the defendant promised to pay $3026.28 but have paid no part of the amount except the sum of $1340.26 in merchandise, cash, etc. The dates between which the towing was done are February 1, 1906, and July 1, 1907.

Off For Launch Cruise—
Lou Williams, of Ilwaco, and Bill Noon, of Portland, arrived in Astoria yesterday afternoon and left for Portland last night on the steamer Lurline. From Portland they will go to Seattle where Mr. Noon will be the guest of Lou Williams and several of his friends on a cruise extending for two weeks on Puget Sound. The party will make the trip on the launch Premier, which is one of the neatest craft of her kind on the Sound waters. After the cruise Noon will be the guest of Mr. Williams at the Sigma Nu Fraternity house, University of Washington, a few days before returning to this state and resuming his studies at the University of Oregon.

An Insidious Danger
One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's Disease and diabetes. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spellmier leave this morning for St. Louis from which place they left 39 years ago for Astoria. This is the first time during these many years that Mr. and Mrs. Spellmier have been farther than Seattle.

S. A. Sax, of the National Shoe & Clothing Co., returned from Portland, yesterday morning, where he had been spending the Jewish holiday.

Dr. J. A. Fulton leaves today for Walla Walla and other Eastern Washington and Oregon points for a short vacation. Dr. Fulton will be gone a week or possibly longer on his vacation.

Chief Foster, of the fire department, left last night for Chehalis, Wash., where he goes to attend to fire department matters.

TROUBLE AT CLIFTON.

Two Boys Accused of Trespassing Tried in the Justice Court.

The justice court looked like a parade day in Clifton, yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the trial of Gargo Vastuliza and Frank Martinez, who were charged, by Mrs. Louisa Stanovich, with trespassing. All of the parties live at Clifton and with the crowd of witnesses and visitors from that city attending court filled it to overflowing, many standing on the sidewalk, where they could hear the proceedings. Mrs. Stanovich, in her complaint and testimony, accused the boys of attempting to steal fruit from her orchard, and when ordered off the place, she claimed that Martinez used vile language towards her and her daughters, and that Vastuliza pointed a 22 calibre rifle at her and threatened to shoot. Her daughter corroborated her, regarding the vile language toward the daughter. The boys denied the stealing of the fruit and the alleged threats but Martinez admitted using a vile term to Miss Stanovich. Judge Goodman decided that a good lecture and a fine of $5 would be sufficient for Martinez, while the lecture only was sufficient for Vastuliza. Mrs. Stanovich did not appear to be over-anxious to have the boys severely punished, but was desirous that they be warned not to annoy her in the future, and Assistant District Attorney McCue who was conducting the case for the prosecution agreed to a nominal fine and a reprimand. Martinez paid his fine and all parties left the court apparently satisfied.

BASEBALL SUNDAY.

On Sunday the concluding game of the Bohemian's season will be played on the Astoria diamond. The Frakes team, of Portland, will again make their appearance here and the Bohemians will do their best to win back the game which was lost to the Portland players at the time of their last appearance here in the city. The Frakes team is a strong one and will put up a good exhibition of the game regardless of how bad they are getting defeated or how sure they are of winning.
